

The Daily Gazetteer.

NUMB. 5023

WEDNESDAY, MAY 1, 1745.

Yesterday arriv'd a Mail from Holland.

Copenhagen, April 19.

HE 19th of this Month is fix'd for the Departure of the Court to Fredericksbourg, in order to pass the fine Season of the Year there; but the King's Journey to Holstein this Spring, is quite laid aside. The British and the Hanoverian Ministers continue their Negotiations with ours, in relation to a Treaty of Subsidy, by which a considerable Body of our Troops are to enter into the Service of the King of Great Britain; but that is very doubtful whether this Negotiation will, or not, take Place.

April 13. The King and Queen have sent as Curiousities to the Court of France, by way of Presents to the Dauphiness, as are esteemed worth Crowns. The Prince of Caraffa Columbrano, of the Italian Guards, who was lately sent Prisoner to the New Castle for striking an Officer of Justice, had Leave from the Deputy-Governor of the Castle to go and lie in his own Palace at Night, but took this so extremely ill, that they have ordered the Officer to be severely punish'd; and the Prince of Caraffa is more closely confin'd than ever.

April 17. On the 10th of this Month the Duke of Sicily, received, in great State, at the Palace of the Invicture of the Palace of Piumbino. Cardinal Aquaviva perform'd that Ceremony, in the Name of the King of Spain. After it was over, the Prince made his Eminence a Present of Three great Values. He likewise gave his Secretary a Watch set with Diamonds, a Gold Repeating Watch to the Groom of the Chambers, Gold Watches to the upper Servants, and 200 Crowns to the Cardinal's Domesticicks. He is since for Naples.

April 17. Between the 10th and 15th, there arriv'd a grand Convoy from Barcelona, having on board Ammunition, Provisions, and about 1200 Regular Troops. They began their March this Morning for the Relief of the Siege of Don Philip; which, it is said, consists of 35,000 Men.

Of a Private Letter from the Austrian Camp near Modena.

Garison of this Citadel consists of 4000 Men, and have 2000 to reinforce that of Mirandola. We have a small Guard, consisting of 180 Litanians and 1000 of Vignola, who defended themselves against the Enemy with all the Bravery imaginable; and when Ammunition and Provisions fail'd them, marched off to Camp, Drums beating, and Colours flying. We are extremely well posted between this City and the Citadel, and have lately received a Reinforcement of Piedmontese Battalions, and 1000 Harse. Prince de Conti sent a Message, lately, to the Duke de Modena, to let him know, that if he stir'd up any Tumult in the Place, the Cannon from the Citadel should lay waste in Ashes; and in order to keep the Citizens better within Bounds, a Gallows has been set up at the End of every great Street. The Allies have their Headquarters at Mont. Alto; the Duke de Modena at the Palace of Salsuolo, with a good Guard, ready to give the Enemy a good Reception, should advance. All this last Week the Cannon of the Citadel have been pointed towards the City; and we expect, in a few Days, 5000 Men from Lombardy; and 3000 Recruits from Mantua.

April 18. On the 1st of this Month was read here the definitive Sentence against Count Joseph Erdman de Hencel, Baron of Buthon, &c. who was thereby declared Guilty of High Treason, depriv'd of his Titles, and all his Estate confiscated. On the 10th the Pandours attack'd the Town of Ratibor, and repuls'd by two Battalions that were quarter'd there. Our Troops have had some fresh Advantages over the Hungarian Insurgents, and oblig'd them to retreat, on the other Side, M. Malachowski, Colonel of a Regiment of Horse, as also of a Regiment of Foot, died on the 17th, of a Wound he unluckily receiv'd from one of his own People, in a Skirmish on the 10th. He was in the 36th Year of his Age, an excellent Officer, and his Loss is generally regretted. The Duke has thought fit to withdraw his Troops out of the Upper Silesia, in order to reinforce the Grand Army, which is still in the Neighbourhood of Neiss.

Augsbourg, April 19. Two of the Principal Ministers of the Elector of Bavaria are said to have done all that lay in their Power to hinder the Conclusion of a Peace. Field Marshal Count Thoring has quitted the Command of the Army, which is given to the Prince of Saxe Hildburghausen: General de Mortaigne has also left the Elector's Service, and the Count de Preysing has likewise laid down all his Employments. The Ministers of France and Spain, that accompanied the Elector hitherto, are still here, waiting the Return of the Expresses they have sent to their several Courts. We very much doubt whether they will return to Munich; where, however, Lodgings are assign'd them. All the Ministers in general, of the Courts lately allied to Bavaria, have protested against the Treaty lately concluded between the Elector and the Court of Vienna; and have declared they have no Share in that Negotiation. It is particularly observed, that this Protest is sign'd by the Minister of the Elector Palatine.

Coblenz, May 2. General Baron de Hagenbach pass'd thro' this City the Day before Yesterday, from the Upper Rhine, in his Way to the Head Quarters at Wallender. The Army of the Allies is preparing to pursue and harass that of the French, in their Retreat. The Duke of Aremberg gave Orders this Morning for all the Troops under his Command, to hold themselves ready to march. It is believed his Highness intends to move towards Mentz; the French Forces quarter'd in that Electorate are retiring towards Flanders; but they have oblig'd the Inhabitants, before their Departure, to pay all that remain'd due of their Contributions. The Troops of Munster will join us To-morrow, and have Orders to obey the Duke of Aremberg in every Thing.

Vienna, April 24. Since the Arrival of General Serbelloni, accompanied by six Postillions, on the 10th Inst. with the News of the Deroute of the French and Palatines at Pfaffenhofen, Col. Odonnel has brought the following Particulars; viz. that the Loss of the Enemy was much greater than was imagin'd at first, the killed and wounded exceeding 3000, besides 800 Prisoners, and great Numbers of Deserters; so that it was presumed, M. Segur, who was march'd to Fribourg, would not reach that Place with more than 3000 of his Countrymen. That General Segur was wounded in the Head, but able to keep on Horseback. That the Palatines too were gone off; and, as was supposed, to Heidelberg or Mannheim. That a great Quantity of Bread, just baked, was found at Rain; with a considerable Magazine of all Sorts of Stores. That the Hessians were, in the mean while, at Friedberg, and the Bavarians under the Cannon of Augsbourg.

Mentz, May 2. The Prince of Conti has taken his Head Quarters at Swolbach; and, it is said, the French Army will encamp in a Day or two. We have Advice that the French have brought about 20 heavy Cannon, and 20 more of a smaller Calibre, with a proportionable Quantity of Ammunition to Spire; and 'twas given out that this Train would be brought immediately to Worms, where Directions were issued for assembling a great Number of Horses; but those Orders have been since countermanded. General Hagenbach, who commanded in the Castle at Fribourg, pass'd thro' this Town two Days ago, in his Way to Aix la Chapelle; and reports, that the French upon the Neckar, after having assembled all the Forces they had in the Circle of Swabia, do not amount to 15,000 Men. Our Elector has received requisitorial Letters from the Prince of Hesse, for the Passage of his Troops, now upon their Return from Bavaria, who are said not to exceed 4000 Men.

From the Camp at Cambron, May 6. The Allied Army arriv'd here from Soignies Yesterday, and will march To-morrow to a Camp mark'd out about a League on this Side Leuse, where the French have these three Days past had an advanced Party. The Reports of Deserters vary about the Progress of the Siege of Tournay; there are four Attacks, but the real one is that at the Gates of the Castle.

FOREIGN PORT.

Elfenor, May 1. The Ship of Capt. John Evert Beggerow, from Riga for London, is arriv'd. All the Ships bound for the North Sea are sail'd; but Capt. Fisher, and three more design'd for the Baltick, are yet here.

The Captains Fendick and Loch are arriv'd at Dantzick; and the Captains Sharp and Moorfoot are got to Riga. Capt. Trapull has been at Dantzick, and is sail'd for Riga.

HOME PORTS.

Bristol, April 27. By a Letter from Bayonne, dated the 20th of April, we have Advice, that a Ship of 350 Tons, bound from hence to Virginia, is taken, and sent into Passage by the Victory Privateer of that Place. They call her the Edward, Hullum; but we think her to be the Edward and Anne, Talsman, who sail'd about five Weeks since without Convoy.

Deal, April 29. Wind S. by E. Arriv'd Yesterday in the Afternoon the Swift Privateer, Capt. Hudson, from a Cruise, and brought in with him three Swedish Ships; viz. the Castor, Andricson, from Gottenburg for Dunkirk; the St. Nicholas, Isberg, and the Pitch, Tar, Iron, &c. also arriv'd the S. Spiritdon, Graxich, and the S. Demertius, Pastosto, from Zant, and another Ship from ditto; the Katherine, from Norway; and the Prince Frederick, Fiddeman, from Fredrickshal; also the Sutherland Privateer, Sutherland, from a Cruise. Remain the Duke Man of War, and the two Ships for Virginia.

LONDON.

The Sloop, Small, Thomas Marlow, Master, from Milford for Dover, was taken between Bechy and Hastings by a French Privateer of 10 Carriage, and 20 Swivel Guns.

Yesterday, at a general Meeting of the Commissioners of the Land Tax for the City and Liberty of Westminster (the most numerous Meeting ever known) it was agreed by a great Majority, that the Quotas that have been assign'd for many Years past upon the several Divisions, were very unequal, and ought to be alter'd; and thereupon resolv'd, Nem. Con. to fix upon an equal and just Proportion throughout the whole Liberty. The Lord Carpenter was unanimously chosen Chairman, and had the general Thanks for his candid and impartial Behaviour.

Last Friday in the Evening died, at his House at Chatham in Kent, of a Mortification in his Bowels, William Walter, Esq; who was upwards of 30 Years an Acting Justice of the Peace, during which Time he applied himself, with uncommon Diligence, to suppress Vice, and encourage Virtue. He was a true Lover of his Country, a sincere Christian, and the best of Friends. His Charities were many, and well placed. An Appearance of Strepitus, which proceeded from his strict Adherence to Truth and Honour, was the only Shade in this worthy Gentleman's Character, and that only to such as did not thoroughly know him.

Yesterday Thomas Ashurst, Esq; Citizen and Alder, was drunk to by the Lord Mayor, to serve the Office of Sheriff of this City.

Last Saturday died, at his House at Epping, Mr. Woodridge, a Gentleman possess'd of a considerable Place in the Office of Ordnance.

Yesterday the Collection at the Rehearsal of the Music for the Feast of the Sons of the Clergy, at St. Paul's, amounted to 588 l.

Yesterday Morning was married at St. Dunston's Church, — Acworth, Esq; one of the Chief Clerks in the Exchequer, to Miss Buckeridge of Ware; a young Lady with a handsome Fortune.

This being the First Day of Easter Term, the Right Hon. the Lord Chancellor, Judges, &c. will go to Westminster Hall with the usual Formality.

Yesterday a Plasterer who was at work at a Haberdashers in the Strand, near the New Exchange, fell from the Scaffolding, and died on the Spot.
